NAYS—1.

Adams, E. C.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative,

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1005, entitled:

An Act to amend section eight hundred and seven and to add section eight hundred and eighteen to article eight of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" providing a method whereby boroughs divided into wards may elect councilmen at large.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Memolo, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MEMOLO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DAVIDSON. I would like to ask the gentleman from Lackawanna if you will please tell this House what good it is going to do the boroughs of Pennsylvania to enact a measure of this kind?

Mr. MEMOLO. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, I want to explain that the bill reduces the number of councilmen. It is the purpose to elect the councilmen-at-large in the boroughs of Pennsylvania. We have in all of the boroughs in which the division is made into wards, councilmen elected from each ward. The idea of this bill is elect them at large the same as you elect the school board and the same as you elect your council or commission in third class cities and second class A cities. The councilmen are elected at large and the purpose of this bill is to elect the councilmen-at-large in the smaller political sub-divisions.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, those of you who were here last session remember that we had a bill similar to this before us. It was voted down. It is up again. This bill provides for five councilmen to be elected at large in boroughs that are divided into wards. In boroughs where they own their own utilities like some of the boroughs out in the western part of the State it is impossible for five men to take care of the thing and as we have learned by electing the school directors at large it is not a good thing. We have in our borough three wards divided by a small stream in which the two wards have the seven school directors now. If this bill passes the House and the Senate and is signed by the Governor, the third ward of our borough would not have any representation and as I said before I want to ask you to vote it down because I don't believe the boroughs of Pennsylvania want it. The Association of Boroughs went on record as opposing it here in February, and I cannot see anything good it is going to do in the boroughs in Pennsylvania at this time.

Mr. MEMOLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise just to explain one feature of this bill. It is not mandatory. Any of the boroughs who have public utilities owned outright by the boroughs need not accept the provisions of this bill. The bill is really optional with the borough, whether they want to adopt the provisions of this bill or not. It provides that in a borough one hundred taxpayers may petition the court of common pleas to change the manner of electing councilmen from electing them by wards to electing them at large. If the court so decides that the interests of the taxpayers of that borough will be better served by electing the council at large in the borough the court will so decree. There will be a hearing on the petition and the pros and cons will have a chance to make their explanations in court. So that I say not all of the boroughs need to accept the provisions of this act unless they want to.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna on that last statement.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. MEMOLO. I will with pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HAGMAIER. You stated that the language of the act was "may," but it states in here in line 28, that on the petition of one hundred citizens they "must" go to the quarter sessions, so that they would not have any option in this matter at all. The petition of any one hundred citizens would require them to go to the quarter sessions to file their prayer.

Mr. MEMOLO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is nothing to compel them to file this petition. It is purely optional.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Let me read this line, "One hundred citizens of the borough shall present a petition to the court of quarter sessions praying for an order to fix the number of the members of council in any borough at five to be elected by the voters at large instead of electing councilmen by wards. Upon the presentation of any such petition the court shall."

Mr. MEMOLO. The court shall hear the petition, but not that the petition shall be made. It does not provide that the one hundred citizens shall petition the court unless they so desire.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, there seems to be an impression that where some borough does not get along as well as they think they should they want to run down here to the House and have all these amendments made to suit themselves, but it goes all over the State, and this condition they are trying to correct may be an isolated case. Therefore, I ask you to vote the measure down.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny with reference to the bill, the smaller municipalities of Pennsylvania respect their prerogative in respect to their ward rights the same as the larger cities do in the State. We recall when they changed the charter of Philadelphia, if my memory serves me right in 1917 or 1919, that they insisted that their councilmen should come from their senatorial districts. When they did that they had in mind that they wanted to protect the minor districts of population so that they should have some representation. We in the boroughs have a local organization as the bigger cities do, and we respect the larger part of our borough the same as they do the larger part of their city. Therefore, I do not see any reason why this bill may not be amended to cure the situation in Lackawanna; I understand they have boroughs with as few as two hundred and sixty-four people and others may be up to ten thousand. If there is a condition existing there, or they have some reason that the councilmen want to overcome, or that the citizens desire, they can arrange that. We respect our ward system and want it retained. I hope the gentlemen of the House will give us their consideration so that we may be left intact. This bill had perfect consideration by the League of Boroughs and it was voted down by them. Leave us as we are, we are perfectly satisfied as we are, even if they do have a little quarrel up in Lackawanna.

A Supplement to an act, approved the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, (P. L. 857), entitled "An act to provide for the personal registration of electors as a condition of their right to vote at elections, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries, in cities of the first class of this Commonwealth, by removing from office all existing registration commissioners and their appointees in said cities, and authorizing the Governor to appoint registration commissions therein; defining the jurisdiction of said commissions, and the powers and duties of the commissioners constituting same, and of their appointees, including registrars, inspectors of registration, clerks, and counsel; fixing their qualifications, terms of office, and compensation; granting them certain immunity from arrest on registration days; and empowering such inspectors to arrest without warrant certain persons committing certain offenses in violation of this act in their presence, as well as to enter and inspect buildings given as residences of electors to interrogate the inmates thereof, to copy or demand a list of the lodgers therein, and to supervise the conduct of registrars; regulating the registration of electors at polling places by registrars, and at the offices of commissions by commissioners, and the right of parties or bodies of electors to have watchers thereat, and the preparation and use of street lists and other records of those registered; allowing the names of persons not entitled to vote to be struck from the registers in certain cases; permitting all records regarding registration to be inspected and copied by any elector under certain conditions; directing how the registers shall be used at elections and primaries; compelling the attendance of witnesses and payment of witness fees; and providing penalties for refusal to obey subpoenas; directing receivers of taxes to appoint chief clerks of commissions as deputies to collect poll taxes and to give receipts therefor; authorizing such clerks to administer oaths, sign subpoenas and vouchers, and to collect and disburse witness fees; prescribing a method for challenging persons applying for registration, and the procedure for the correction of registers, and for appealing from actions of registrars to said commissions; and allowing for appeals from the decisions of the commissions in certain cases to courts of common pleas; imposing certain duties upon election officers and upon the councils, treasurers, controllers, receivers of taxes, police officers, and other officials of said cities and upon the courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, commissioners, peace officers, and other officials of the judicial districts and counties in which said cities are situated or with which they are coextensive; legalizing certain acts required hereby if done on any Sunday or legal holiday; requiring said cities to provide for the maintenance of said commissions, and the compensation of their appointees, and the payment of all expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and to transfer the unexpended balances of all appropriations heretofore made for the personal registration of electors of said cities during the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen to and for the use of the said commissions; punishing and fixing penalties for violations thereof; and repealing all legislation inconsistent herewith."

Legislative Journal.

Session 1929 128th of the General Assembly

Vol. 11 HARRISBURG, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1929 No. 29

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, March 27, 1929.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

Our gracious Heavenly Father, one of the revelations to us in Passion Week is that human sin causes suffering in the heart of a loving God, a suffering somewhat akin to that experienced by a true parent because of the waywardness of a disobedient child. We heartily and truly repent of our sins, and pray that we may not continue to bruise Thee with our iniquities.

We thank Thee that Thine is a redemptive suffering, for Thou hast been wounded for our transgressions and with Thy stripes we are healed.

May our spiritual health improve because of our faith in Thee and Thy redemptive power. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WEINGARTNER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, March 27, 1929.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Martin W. Schweiter, Ph. D., offered the following prayer:

We think Thee, Lord, for the habit of prayer. We ask for the right spirit of prayer. May we receive more than we expect. Come into our souls through those doorways that open only to Thee. We come with the sense of sin, yet with the glorious consciousness that we are made a little lower than the angels.

O God, help Thou our faith. May it grow as a tree planted by the rivers of water. May men find in our lives evidences of living healing faith. Help us to believe in Thy love. Help us to love and trust Thee and to worship Thy sweet will, and all thy ways adore.

During the holy week our thoughts are centered around the suffering Lord. We will have before us the crucified Savior. "For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that all who believe on him may not perish, but have everlasting life." Thus will we be prepared for a visit to the open Easter tomb.

We ask it in the name of the crucified and arisen Christ. Amen.

NAYS—1.

Donnell,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 485, file folio 3701, on page 38 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Spangler,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 485, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws five hundred sixty-one) entitled "An act to limit the amount of loans to officers and directors of banks trust companies and savings institutions with capital stock heretofore or hereafter incorporated in this Commonwealth and prohibiting loans upon the security of the capital stock of such corporations" limiting the amount of loans to officers and directors of banks trust companies and savings institutions and to firms and houses in which such officers and directors are interested.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. T. J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the sponsor of this bill to explain its provisions.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, This is one of a series of bills that have been introduced at the suggestion of the Secretary of the Department of Banking for the purpose of making banking conditions in the State of Pennsylvania better and more sound for the people of the Commonwealth. I introduced this bill at the suggestion of the Secretary of the Department of Banking and my understanding is that it includes officers.—regulating the amount of money that an officer of a bank or a trust company in the State of Pennsylvania shall be permitted to borrow from his own instituttion. It fixes the amount that that officer, or director of the bank, may borrow, which is ten per cent. of the capital stock and surplus of the banking institution. The bill merely extends the existing law in so far as the borrowing capacity of officers of the bank is concerned. Heretofore, according to my understanding, officers were not included in those who were permitted to borrow from the bank under certain regulations as to the amount they could borrow. Now the officers of the bank are limited in their borrowing capacity as well as the directors of the bank to ten per cent. of the capital stock and surplus of the bank.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. SPANGLER. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Is not the purpose of this bill to put our state banks on a parity with the national banks?

Mr. SPANGLER. I think that is the purpose of the program. I think this same provision is in the national banking act.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it was my understanding when this bill came before the Committee on Banks and Banking that the purpose of the bill was to put the state banks on a parity with the national banks.

Mr. T. J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman further, I would like to ask the gentleman if this bill does not also make it impossible for a person to borrow from a bank with which he is connected for a corporation or other concern in which he is interested as a director or an officer, either directly or indirectly.

Mr. SPANGLER. The act says, "No officer or director of any banking institution trust company or savings institution having capital stock heretofore and hereafter incorporated in this Commonwealth and no firm or house in which any such officer or director may be interested directly or indirectly shall receive as a loan or loans from such banking institution trust company or savings bank an amount which including therein any extension of credit", and so forth.

Mr. T. J. BROWN. That makes the thing very broad. If you have stock in a company or a corporatoion in which you are interested that provision of directly or indirectly would prevent that company from borrowing from the bank in which you were an officer or a director under the provisions of this bill.

Mr. SPANGLER. I think that is the correct interpretation of it, that is where the officer of the bank is the officer also of a company. I think that was the intention of the Secretary of Banking, to prevent the borrowing of money by such officer or director from the institution with which he was connected in an amount in excess of ten per cent. of the capital stock and surplus of the bank. As I understand, it is to throw a safeguard around the capital stock and the surplus of the bank and to protect it against excessive borrowing.

Mr. T. J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is the expression "directly or indirectly" that I particularly refer to. It broadens the act out so that we can hardly tell where the end will be.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me that the objections of the gentleman from Lancaster are somewhat modified by the last paragraph which states that "the limitations imposed by this section shall not apply to loans secured by not less than a like amount of bonds or notes of the United States or of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania." In other words, if you are interested in a corporaton or connected with a business which desires to borrow from the bank, you can extend this limit of ten per cent. by depositing good collateral against your loan. This is merely to protect our banking institutions. I do not think that it would work a hardship on a concern in which you may be interested either directly or indirectly. It seems to me this bill ought to be passed.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Upon the payment of the such amounts into the State Treasury, through the Department of Revenue, the association, liquidating trustee or trustees, or other person or persons charged with the duty of dissolving the association, shall be relieved from all liability for the amounts of such distributive shares so paid.

No such unincorporated association or limited partnership association shall be deemed or held to be dissolved unless and until the liquidating trustee or trustees or other persons charged with the dissolution of the same shall have made a report to the Department of Revenue as required by this section, and if they report any such moneys in their possession, shall have paid the same into the State Treasury, through the Department of Revenue.

Section 1313. Reports and Payments by Receivers—Every receiver appointed by any court in this Commonwealth shall, at or before the filing of his final account, file with the court having jurisdiction of his accounts a separate sworn statement, setting forth in detail the amounts of funds in his possession for which no valid claim has been made upon him, and the owner or owners of which, or their whereabouts, or the legal representatives of whom, he has been unable to ascertain. Such statement shall set out the name and last known address of each person to whom any of said accounts stand credited, the amount due to him, and the efforts, if any, which have been made by the receiver to locate each of said persons in order to make payment to him. If the receiver shall have no such unclaimed funds in his possession, he shall so report under oath. A sworn duplicate of such statement shall be filed with the original, which duplicate shall be forwarded by the clerk or prothonotary of the said court to the Department of Revenue. The said clerk or prothonotary shall, at the same time or as soon thereafter as may be, notify the Department of Revenue of the date fixed for audit or adjudication of such account. The filing of such statement and the duplicate thereof, and the forwarding of the duplicate to the Department of Revenue, shall be entered of record in said court.

It shall be unlawful for any prothonotary or clerk of any court to accept for record in his office the final account of any receiver unless the statement required to be filed by such receiver under the provisions of this Section is filed therewith or has been theretofore filed in his office.

No receiver shall be discharged, nor his sureties released, and no final distribution of funds in his possesison shall be authoried or permitted, until such statement is filed and action taken thereupon in the manner hereinafter provided.

Whenever the statement filed by any receiver in compliance with the provisions of this section shall show any unclaimed funds in his possession, or whenever the Department of Revenue shall discover any such unclaimed funds in the possession of a receiver although no statement thereof has been filed by such received in compliance with the provisions of this act, the Attorney General shall, at the suggestion of the Department of Revenue, apply by petition, before the audit or adjudication of such accounts, to the court having jurisdiction of the accounts of such receiver, for an order directing the payment of so much of said funds as shall remain unclaimed at the date of said application into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue to be reimbursed therefrom upon application by the owner thereof, in the manner hereinbefore in this Act provided.

A copy of said petition shall be served upon the receiver, and upon proof of such service, the said court shall, when the audit of the account is presented to it for approval and final adjudication, and before or at the time of making a decree of final distribution, pass upon the prayer of such petition after hearing held thereupon, and it shall be the duty of the auditor of the account to give timely notice to the Attorney General of the date fixed for the presentation of his audit. If any of said funds are claimed at the hearing by persons lawfully entitled thereto, or if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that any of the said funds have been claimed prior to said hearing by persons lawfully entitled thereto, or that any of said funds were not properly returnable by the receiver under the provisions of this Act, the court shall order said funds to be paid to said claimants or to remain in the hands of the receiver, as the facts shall warrant. If the court shall be of the opinion that the efforts theretofore made by the receiver to locate and pay the owners of the remaining funds have been sufficient, it shall order said funds to be forthwith paid into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue; otherwise it shall order such publication of notice to the owners of said funds as it may deem proper, after which publication and proof thereof, it shall likewise order said funds, the owners of which have not been located within sixty days after the conclusion of said advertising, to be similarly paid into the State Treasury.

"Whenever, on the audit of the final account of any receiver, it shall appear to the court having jurisdiction of his accounts that such receiver has unclaimed moneys in his possession subject to being paid into the State Treasury under the provisions of this section the court may of its own motion order the same to be paid into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue, whether a statement of such moneys has been filed and a petition by the Attorney General presented for the payment of the same into the State Treasury as required by the provisions of this section or not, in the same manner as is herein provided in cases where a statement has been filed and a petition presented.

"No receiver whose statement, filed in compliance with the provisions of this Act, shall show any unclaimed funds to be in his possession, shall be discharged, nor his sureties released, nor any final distribution of the funds in his possession made, until he shall have filed in court the receipt of the Department of Revenue for the moneys so paid. On the compliance by the receiver with the said order of the court, as evidenced by said receipt, the receiver and his sureties shall be relieved from all liability for the said funds so paid into the State Treasury.

"Section 1314. Reports and Payments by Fiduciaries—Whenever, on the audit or adjudication of the account of any fiduciary, there shall be and remain in his possession any moneys not awarded to any claimant or claimants, or any moneys which shall have been awarded to any claimant or claimants the whereabouts whereof, or that of their legal representatvies, the fiduciary has been unable to ascertain, the fiduciary shall, within sixty days after the date of said audit or adjudication, file in the court having jurisdiction of his account a sworn statement of such unawarded or unclaimed moneys, with duplicate, in the same form and manner prescribed in the preceding section of this Act, and thereupon proceedings to secure the payment of such moneys into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue to be refunded as hereinbefore provided, shall be had, similar in all respects to those hereinbefore provided for in cases where a statement of unclaimed moneys is filed at or before the filing of the final account of a receiver, except that in proceedings under this section, the court shall by its order provide for the serving of a copy of the petition upon the fiduciary, and shall fix a day for a hearing upon said petition.

"In any such case of unawarded moneys or of moneys awarded to claimants the whereabouts whereof, or that of their legal representatives, the fiduciary has been unable to ascertain, the court having jurisdiction of his accounts may, upon motion or on its own initiative, in its discretion, order the payment of such moneys into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue, whether the statement required to be filed by this section has been in fact filed or not, and whether or not a petition praying for an order for the payment of such moneys into the State Treasury has been filed by the Attorney General, and such payment shall have the same force and effect in all respects as if the same had been made pursuant to an order issued in compliance with the prayer of a petition therefor filed by the Attorney General as hereinbefore in this Act provided.

"The fiduciary and his sureties shall be relieved from all liability for any funds paid into the State Treasury as the result of proceedings under any provision of this section.

"If said fiduciary shall fail or neglect to file the statement required by the provisions of this section, the unawarded or unclaimed moneys in his hands which should have been reported in said statement shall, when ascertained, nevertheless be subject to be paid into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue upon proceedings had in the manner provided by this section.

No fiduciary shall be discharged, nor his sureties released, and no final distribution of funds in his possession shall be authorized or permitted, so long as he has in his possession any funds subject to payment into the State Treasury under the provisions of this section.

Thou eternal God, we remember in our petitions tonight those of our citizens who have been chosen to execute the laws of our State. We pray Thy blessing to rest upon his Excellency, the Governor of our Commonwealth, upon all the various officials of the State, upon the judges, attorneys and magistrates, upon the various county officials, upon the State Militia and constabulary, the policemen of our cities and those who perform like duties in the rural sections. Some of these are required to do heroic service. Protect them in the discharge of their duties, we pray Thee. We appreciate the services they render and we will give them our moral support. We ask for these mercies in Thy blessed name. Amen.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts, will state his point of order.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I question the right of the Senate, after a bill has been regularly introduced, fully considered by the committee to which it was referred, reported out, read at length on three separate days, finally passed, sent to the House of Representatives and referred to a committee there, to recall such a bill from the House of Representatives, whether the House concurs or not.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, before the Chair decides this point of order, I wish to state that I differ from the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, will state his point of order.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, a point of order is not debatable.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, will state his question of information.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, my understanding is that this bill is the property of the Senate, and this resolution is entirely in order; and if the House shall see fit to release the bill, this bill is within our jurisdiction.

The CHAIR. The Chair does not sustain the point of order raised by the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts. If the House consents to return the bill to the Senate, it is still within the power and authority of the Senate to further consider this bill.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. Under Rule 39 this resolution must be referred to a committee. Without the consent of the Senate to suspend Rule 39 the resolution must be referred to the appropriate committee.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39 be suspended, and that the Senate do now proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, for the time being I withdraw my appeal from the decision of the Chair.

On the question,
